Marvin,

For your review. I struggled a bit on how to structure this, so I would be open to your input. As discussed, I will be out this afternoon for a procedure on my back, but should be back in the office tomorrow afternoon and glad to discuss this further.

Thanks,

Respectfully Submitted,

Marvin J Powell

Attorney for Plaintiff

Dated: January 26, 2019

4. Plaintiff has expressed concern over the absence of certain Susquehanna Bank era documents.
5. The parties have concluded that the best approach to resolve the disputes and ensure clarity as to the available documents is to, by stipulation, define precisely, on the record, what BB&T has produced and what it does not have in its possession.
6. For Notice item 2 – 10, BB&T defines its contractual obligation for each item as governed by Plaintiff's Customer Agreement, Deposit Account Agreement, and Pennsylvania law.
7. For Notice items 11, 13, 14, 16, 17, 18, 22(k), 22(m), and 22(o) BB&T, after multiple searches, has nothing further in its possession than what was already produced in discovery or in the Orphan's Court Litigation, docketed at No. 1515-1782 in the Chester County Court of Common Pleas.
8. For items 22(a) and 22(b), BB&T has provided those previously. Richard Johnson Sr.'s Customer Agreement is dated June 29, 2012 and Richard Johnson Jr.'s Customer Agreement is dated May 2, 2013.
9. For items 22(g) and 22(h), BB&T, after multiple searches, has no Susquehanna Bank era employee job descriptions in its possession.
10. Plaintiff has withdrawn items 12, 15, 19, 20, 22(f), 22(i), 22(j), 22(l), 22(n), 22(p), 22(q), and 22(r).

Respectfully Submitted,
